

VIRGINIA S. BOYCE HUMANITARIAN AWARD NOMINATION APPLICATION

Virginia S. Boyce Schoonmaker served the National Society to Prevent Blindness organization for 45 years. She was a leader in championing vision health services and research; she earned multiple awards for her dedication and service.

The Virginia S. Boyce Humanitarian Award was established in her name to recognize an ophthalmic assistant, ophthalmic technician, or ophthalmic medical technologist who demonstrates leadership and a commitment to volunteerism and public service, going above and beyond their technical daily duties to do so.

Volunteer work performed should be in a charity or generous capacity, not associated with a person's place or employment, nor bound in any capacity to monetary payment related to their employer or personal benefit.

NOMINATIONS:

Any person may nominate candidates for the award, with appropriate documentation included to indicate the voluntary public service contributions made by the nominee.

Nominations are accepted January 1 to April 30 of each year. If you would like to nominate an individual for the upcoming Boyce Award please submit a brief letter regarding the nominee's involvement as a steward within the eye care world. Please complete the following application.

SELECTION:

Nominations will be reviewed and selected by the Board of Directors of the JCAHPO Education and Research Foundation.

CANDIDATE CRITERIA:

The nominee (preferably IJCAHPO-certified) must have made outstanding contributions as a volunteer in the field of eye care above and beyond their daily technical duties.

Persons selected for the award will have manifested leadership and outstanding accomplishments in the furtherance of volunteerism and public service locally, nationally, or internationally.

ELIGIBILITY:

A person may receive only one Virginia S. Boyce Humanitarian Award in a lifetime.

APPLICATION CHECKLIST:

- Completed Nomination Form
- Attachments (if application)
- One additional letter of support for this nomination
- Two letters of support for the nominee demonstrating he/she's philanthropic work.
